

NAVY SUMMIT

S N A P S H O T

POTOMAC OFFICERS CLUB

BACKGROUND

In 2022, the chief of naval operations released the Navy's new Navigation Plan, an ambitious, long-term modernization strategy intended to give the service branch an edge in today's global maritime environment. The Navy has also zeroed-in on its aging infrastructure through a still-in-development 30-year plan recently ordered by Navy Secretary Carlos Del Toro.

CONTRACT OPPORTUNITIES

The Defense Logistics Agency is currently accepting solicitations for the $500 million Navy IPV Gen IV Project contract, which aims to provide a vehicle for the Navy to receive continuous bench stock support at three depots.

The Naval Facilities Engineering Systems Command recently issued a request for proposals for its $240 million Environmental Remediation Services contract, which aims to address contaminated sites at Navy and Marine Corps facilities as well as several locations managed by other federal agencies.

The Marine Corps is currently accepting proposals for the $2.5 million TECOM Range and Training Programs Division Operational Support contract, under which the awardee will develop a progressive training continuum to boost planning, preparation, exercise and assessment capabilities for Marine units.
